Our Mission

is to provide emergency shelter and resources for single homeless women, regardless of their faith, in an environment that respects their dignity as human persons, affords them the opportunity to live individually and collectively in a safe environment of self-government, and empowers them to network with local businesses and social services for employment and self-sufficiency.

It's in a spirit of love and caring that we feel called, with your help, to serve the homeless population in Allen County in greatest need of shelter and support: single homeless women. St. Joseph Missions Women's Shelter is dedicated to caring for women who are at risk for becoming victims of sex trafficking, violence, and abusive relationships. With your generous assistance, we can provide crucial emergency housing and a path to self-reliance for our single homeless sisters.

How Does It Work?

Fifteen designer purses ($198+) will be awarded for the top prizes. A grid containing 150 squares (one square for each ticket sold) will be on a large screen for everyone to see. As a number is called, it will be placed in the appropriate square starting with the 150th square going down to one. At each descending multiple of 10 (140, 130, 120...) a designer purse will be awarded. The Grand Prize purse will be awarded to the last number drawn.

Second-Chance Drawing

Tickets will be sold at the door for a second-chance at winning a fabulous prize! Smaller donated items will be awarded when the second-chance numbers are drawn throughout the evening, in between the numbers drawn for the Purse Reverse Raffle. Winning a second-chance drawing will not eliminate a guest from winning a main-event designer purse since this drawing uses the numbered tickets purchased at the door.

50/50 Drawing

During the event guests can purchase tickets for a 50/50 drawing. At a designated time during the event, a ticket will be drawn and the winner will receive half of the money collected from the ticket sales.

Raffle Baskets

Donated raffle, themed baskets will be displayed at the event. Separate raffle tickets will be sold for chances to win each basket. Winners will be drawn throughout the event.

DONATIONS CAN BE DELIVERED TO:

ALLEN COUNTY CHIROPRACTIC WELLNESS CENTER
6320 Constitution Drive, Fort Wayne, IN 46804
